

TMT Legal Services – Move Services Consent Form

Making your move easier

As part of your transaction, TMT Legal Services works with our trusted partner, Legal Compliance Solutions, to offer trusted third-party services designed to simplify your move.

These services are completely optional. We will only share your details if you provide consent.

Protecting your Investment

A lender's valuation is not a survey, it's a brief check to confirm the property is worth the loan amount, purely for the lender's protection. It doesn't identify structural issues, damp, subsidence, or other costly defects that could impact you as the buyer. Commissioning your own independent survey provides an expert inspection of the property's condition, helping you make informed decisions and avoid unexpected repair bills later.

Professional Removals for a Smooth Move

Moving home is one of life's most stressful events and packing, lifting, and transporting everything yourself rarely saves as much time or money as you hope. Professional removal companies handle your belongings with care, ensure they're properly insured in transit, and coordinate timings with your completion day. It's a practical investment that helps your move run smoothly and keeps the focus where it should be, settling into your new home.

Please tick any services you would like to arrange or provide information about:

Service	Description	Tick if interested
 Survey	Access to independent RICS-qualified surveyors for HomeBuyer and Building Surveys.	<input type="checkbox"/>
 Removals	Quotes from vetted removal companies to handle your move.

Your consent

I/we consent to TMT Legal Services providing my/our contact details and relevant property information to Legal Compliance Solutions, who may share this information with their trusted partners to arrange the selected services.

I/we understand that:

- I/we are under no obligation to use any of the services offered.
- Legal Compliance Solutions may receive a commission or administration fee from its partners.

- I/we will be contacted directly by the relevant service provider only for the services selected above.
